Secondary Maths Teacher Apprentice Recruitment Pack

About Chantry Middle School

Chantry Middle School, is a very popular school situated in Morpeth, Northumberland, with currently 550 students on role. We are part of the Three Rivers Learning Trust and work closely with the other schools in the trust to ensure the quality of provision is the highest possible for the young people in our schools. The school has a wide catchment area which includes the market town of Morpeth and the surrounding area. The vast majority of our students join us from our 7 feeder schools: Morpeth All Saints, Cambo, Longhorsley, St Robert's, Stannington, Morpeth Stobhillgate and Tritlington. We are also very proud to be part of the Morpeth Partnership of Schools who are at the heart of the local community.

Chantry Middle School promotes an ethos of fulfilment, individual value and enjoyment, we acknowledge that our young people are individuals who possess differing strengths but who have a common entitlement. It is our aim to ensure these individual strengths have every opportunity to flourish and thrive.

Our dedicated and talented staff ensure that students are challenged to meet their potential, in a supportive environment. We have a holistic view of education, delivering a broad and balanced curriculum and cater for a wide range of interests through an extensive enrichment and extra-curricular programme.

The vision, principles and expectations of Chantry Middle School are reinforced through our 'core values' which stand at the very heart of all that we do. These values are woven through all aspects of school life.

Students at Chantry Middle School enjoy a rich and varied programme of activities which extends their experience across many aspects of the curriculum. This wider enrichment provision is an important part of the learning experience that we provide for students and we are proud of both the breadth of this offer and the way that the students engage with all opportunities that are provided for them.

We are rightly proud of our school and all that we achieve together and we look forward to meeting and working with you.

Mr Bryan Stewart
Headteacher

The Three Rivers Learning Trust

The Three Rivers Learning Trust was established in 2011 and consists of a single high school, The King Edward VI High School and three feeder middle schools, Newminster, Dr Thomlinson and Chantry as well as 4 first schools, Abbeyfields, Thropton, Harbottle and Stobhillgate. All of the schools have a long and proud history of providing an excellent education service to their local populations. The Learning Trust is managed by a single Board of Directors to ensure the integration of educational provision for students between 3 and 19. We are seen locally as a centre of educational excellence and have recently been selected to be the Teaching School Hub for Newcastle, Northumberland & North Tyneside. We recognise the mutual benefits to our Learning Trust through reciprocal staff development opportunities, training events, and the generation of new ways of working through system leadership. Through our teaching, we aim to equip children with the skills, knowledge and understanding necessary to be able to make informed choices about the important things in their lives. We believe that appropriate teaching and learning experiences help children to lead happy and rewarding lives.

The Three Rivers Learning Trust mission

We are a collaborative and caring learning community where all partners are treated equally and with respect. We believe that by sharing and working together we enhance learning and other opportunities. We want to prepare our children and young people for life, ensuring that they have the skills, abilities and motivation to succeed.

Our vision

To provide engaging and enriching opportunities for all our students to become accomplished.

To empower all our people to become fulfilled in their work.

Job Advert

Chantry Middle School Part of The Three Rivers Learning Trust (9-13 Years Middle School, Headteacher: Mr Bryan Stewart)

Chantry is a large middle school with over 500 students from Years 5 to 8, situated in the town of Morpeth in Northumberland. We pride ourselves on being a fully inclusive and truly comprehensive school with high standards. Our purpose is to provide experiences to inspire, motivate and meet the needs of all learners. We encourage a lifelong love of learning to enable all to develop the attitudes, skills and knowledge to become confident communicators and responsible citizens.

Our teacher apprenticeship programme is led by The King Edward VI School, based in Morpeth approximately 20 minutes north of Newcastle upon Tyne. King Edward's is an outstanding school and has a rich history and a longstanding reputation for academic excellence, and continues to be a central part of the local and regional community.

By joining Chantry as a teacher apprentice, you would become part of this long established partnership of schools that work closely together to share good practice and learn from each other. We believe passionately in the school based route into teaching and are dedicated to using our knowledge, skills and expertise to train the next generation of teachers. We are fortunate to be able to offer a wide variety of host schools. In our schools trainees feel valued and supported. You will be employed for one year and salaried at £18,169.00, throughout your time in school. You will have access to a high quality training programme and engage in a wide variety of experiences. Both a subject and professional mentor will be carefully selected for their ability to develop the practice of new entrants to the profession, allowing them to fulfil their potential to become outstanding practitioners. By successfully completing your training, you will be awarded Qualified Teacher Status (QTS).

- In order to apply for the teacher apprenticeship programme, you MUST have:
- A UK undergraduate degree with a first or 2:1 classification, or recognised equivalent (a 2:2 classification may be accepted for candidates who demonstrate exceptional aptitude or have long term experience in a school setting)

- A GCSE grade C or above in English Language and Maths
- Evidence of an interest and enthusiasm for teaching young people
- Strong specialist knowledge of Maths (a minimum of 50% of your degree must be in Maths)
- Further details can be found here.

You will be required to undergo a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check to verify your suitability for working with children and young people.

Applications can only be made through the UCAS website. Prospective trainees need to register for the application process. The course code is S099. Once you have registered and received your personal ID number, you will need to complete an online application.
